Foreword

The thirty members of the Class of 1946 have the honor of presenting the initial publication of the "Cap and Candle" offered with pride at the climax of three years of training.

Dedication

EDYTHE GRING KISTLER, R.N., B.S.

The inauguration of the United States Cadet Nurse Corps in 1943 presented a great problem of acceleration, but you accepted the challenge and planned for us a course of study which was interesting and stimulating. Your effort in providing for many diverting activities, widening our experience through new affiliations, and initiating the "Cap and Candle", inspired us to greater achievement in the Nursing profession and guided us into the pathway of knowledge.

OUR PRAYER . . .

Eternal God our Father, who art the Light that never fails, the Love that never forgets, and the Life that never ends, hear us as we pray, for we watch for Thee more than they that watch for the morning. We walk in the twilight yet, and wait for the rising sun of our salvation. How ignorant we are before Thee, more ignorant than little children when they are led by the father's hand. We confess our sins, our shortcomings, and our failures.

Dear Blessed Saviour, we thank Thee for Thyself, for in Thee we have found God and life. Skies are brighter and the world is lovelier, because Thou hast written eternity upon it. Life is not short but endless. Our defeats shall end in victory. We yield to Thee O God, for Thou art stronger than we. We cannot do without Thee, unless we surrender all that comforts and all that inspires. Oh give to us the consciousness of Thy presence, come Spirit of Jesus deepen and enrich our lives, and draw us we beseech Thee, near to Thyself, keep us forever within Thy gracious love. This is our prayer dear Christ. Amen . . .

Cadet March

VERSE

The Maltese Cross is marching again,
To answer the call—a new crusade;
We give our care to valorous men
To heroes and all who need our aid.
Cadets in gray are here to carry along
The valiant fight to keep America strong!

CHORUS

We're the Cadets,
We're in the Corps,
Doing our part to help the nation win the war,
Doing the job we're chosen for,
United States Cadet Nurse Corps,
Working together day and night,
Guarding our country's strength and might
From coast to coast we'll sing a toast,
Student nurses of the Corps!

HELEN JOAN AUSURA

Helen

November 29

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Where there is a department being run smoothly and efficiently, you will most likely find this very good nurse. Her lovely smile and expressive eyes have been known to melt the hearts of the sternest patient. Chic—excellent taste in clothes—wears distinctive hats. A certain interne up Reading way seems very interesting—!

TERESA M. BRANCA

Terry

October 17

Norristown, Pa.

A cute 'lil gal with blue eyes and the darndest way of looking up at you through her long lashes. Her shining braids are so—so neat and becoming. "Kelly" is a favorite name with Terry, but her heart belongs to Joe. Lots of pep and a snappy wit keep the gang laughing when Branca's around.

DOLORES VIRGINIA BROWNLEE

Lora

March 12

Line Lexington, Pa.

Brownlee's the class poet — always dreaming, at some distance from solid ground. As literary editor of "Cap and Candle", she has played an important role. Her sweet disposition and gentle manner have won the hearts of her classmates and a fair-sized portion of the British Navy.

MARY LOU CAPRIO

Cap

October 10

Gardena, California

Alertness, efficiency, and self-confidence combine to make Mary Lou one of our best nurses. She has also proved her ability as class president. "Our Pal" is west-bound after graduation and takes with her our sincere good wishes for future happiness.

JOSEPHINE ANN CIRAFASI

Ciraf

June 28

Norristown, Pa.

Pretty as the dickens with a lovely complexion and natural curly hair, many heads turn in Jo's direction. Little and lively (having the most insane giggle) she holds a permanent place in our memories of training. Goes with Caprio like mustard goes with hot dogs!

LEONE ANN DERRINGE

Lee

September 4

Shenandoah, Pa. *

Hard-working, fast-thinking, and level-headed on duty; but full of gags, tricks, and general devilment at Harkness House —Derringe is always making somebody laugh. Petite, neat as a pin and well thought of by her friends and patients.

EVELYN FRANCESCA EMBESSI

Bessie

January 22

Bristol, Pa.

Bessie's poised, calm, deliberate manner makes her an admirable nurse on the floors; and her bright mind plus a keen intellect, an exceptional student in the classroom. A worthwhile friend and loyal companion, she'll be a success in any field.

JANE ANN HARTRANFT

Janie

October 4

Hatfield, Pa.

Merry little Jane is thorough, unruffled in her work. Amiable and sweet-tempered, however, she is firm in her convictions. Her energy in off duty hours is directed along artistic lines, viz., posters and photographic tinting. "Sugar and spice"—and she can cook, too! "Oh, Johnny."

MILDRED ELSIE HAYES

Millie

August 15

Center Point, Pa.

Nimble mind—nimble fingers—Millie's always making something for somebody. Calm and unaffected she has a ready smile for everyone. Has pleasant memories of Maternity, Muni, and Baltimore.

MARION EMMA HOLT

Bubbles

April 15

Doylestown, Pa.

Frank, unassuming, down to earth Marion is an especially conscientious worker and everybody's friend. A southpaw—she had a time wrestling with the right-handed desks in the classroom. Outdoor girl—particularly enjoys riding and swimming.

BETTY ANN KIM

Bettyann

September 13

Oahu, Hawaiian Islands

Endeared to our hearts is this flower of the Isles. "Lana" has natural charm, friendliness and striking good looks. Hospital corridors are a long way from sandy beaches, but you'll be there again with a new self-assurance and courage in your chosen career. Of course she can "hula" and play a "uke"!

BETTY MAY KOLLER

Bettymay

May 10

Shillington, Pa.

Singing, whistling, joking—she makes her way through Harkness House and life. As chapel pianist she displays her talent for music, however at parties her "boogie woogie" is a favorite. Why is the scenery at Valley Forge so interesting, Betty?

EDYTHE MADELINE LEFFERING

Edie

September 3

Philadelphia, Pa.

Bubbling over with good humor, she travels on wings of song with head in the clouds. Edie did very well in the classroom and was a lively, willing nurse on the floor. Crowned "Cotton-ball Queen" of Central Supply.

LOUISE VERNA LEIBY

Lee-be

April 18

Mahanoy City, Pa.

Serious-minded Louise has a very humorous side—so we've learned in three years. Laughs aplenty when Leiby is around. Willing and conscientious worker—takes great interest in life as a whole. Intelligence plus! Aspirations for the future—a doctor's degree.

IRENE O'CONNELL

Rene

September 17

Manheim, Pa.

Pleasant disposition and a bright smile mark Rene as a regular girl. Keeps busy tending her private zoo, namely "Tuna", the goldfish. Remains ever loyal to fair Manheim. Maternity nights—"Oh, Nurse, please!"

P. MARGUERITE ORNDORF

Betts

May 26

Wayne, Pa.

Intelligence and high ideals plus a good deal of common sense combine to make her well liked by everyone. Lots of fun, she's usually found doubled over with laughter at the antics of Reed, Scheid, and Derringe. As Business Manager she instigated the opening work on the Yearbook.

PHYLLIS REED

Phil

October 22

Hatboro, Pa.

Cute as a bug's ear, Reed is bright and popular—has a knack of concocting tricky outfits and hairdos and then wearing them so well. As a clever hostess she's indispensable in our social activities. Was an efficient O.R. nurse; likes Pediatrics, too.

EVELYN SANTRY

Evie

December 2

Philadelphia, Pa.

Blond, blue-eyed, good natured and very likable is Evie. Has a unique Irish humor, complete with brogue. Nursery nights with premies and gavage feedings are well remembered. "Top o' the mornin' to ya—and the rest o' the day ta meself!"

MARY ANN SCHEID

Andy

November 24

Philadelphia, Pa.

Andy is a very accomplished girl—excels in her class-work but is also tops in swimming with her famous Australian crawl. A distinctive pianist—"Clair de Lune" is a favorite. Scheid has done creditable work on the staff of the "Cap and Candle".

RUTH MAE SEELY

Seely

April 31

Drums, Pa.

Tall, slender with golden hair, Ruth quietly and steadily carries on. No task too great or whim too small for her attention. Sparkling smile and pleasant voice brighten Room 513. Is noted for directness and thoughtful opinions.

LUCY SEMERJIAN

Luciel

October 16

Philadelphia, Pa.

Our talented Lucy's sketching has professional appeal—how can it be only a pastime with her? An individualist with a type of humor all her own, she certainly knows how to enjoy life. "L.S.-M.F.T." (Mighty Fine Thing).

AMELIA RAJCOK SMITH (MRS.)

Milly

July 6

Bethlehem, Pa.

Independent and optimistic—Mil loves her work and Jerry. An excellent student and efficient nurse, the welfare of her patient is foremost in her mind. She has a deep appreciation of music and poetry. Looks forward to self-expression in her happy home.

MARGARET FLORENCE STERZEN

Peggy

August 18

Hotto, Pa.

Attractive, willowy Peggy makes a striking figure in her chic ensembles. Wears her chestnut-colored hair in various becoming styles. She was an expert scrub nurse in the operating room. Acquires an enviable tan during the summer on the hospital roof.

JANET MARTHA STEWART

Stew

December 6

Buck Run, Pa.

This pretty brown-eyed red-head hails from up state. Stew excels in just about every sport you can mention. Remember the day Bill came home from the South Pacific? She's an inseparable companion and room mate of Shirdy—no, they're not sisters.

SHIRLEY ELIZABETH STEWART

Shirdy

December 6

Lansdowne, Pa.

Pert, real cute, with a crazy giggle—Shirdy's a genuine person. Swims with mermaid agility; diving is a special treat at the "Y"—also goes horseback riding "off and on". Her pet phrase "I wouldn't feed that to my dog Snuffy" applies to almost everything. "I'll take a Pepsie."

F. IRENE STOVER

Chief

July 19

Sellersville, Pa.

Miss p.r.n. is practically synonymous with the "Chief". (Will I ever get off Night Duty?) Rosy cheeks, twinkling eyes, and ready grin—that's Rene. A faithful friend. How many deliveries have you had? You can't beat her record. "What IS that thing! or ?" Elucidate—please—!

BETTY VIRGINIA VOYDE

Betts

August 2

Media, Pa.

This vivacious bundle of energy has saved many a dull evening. Her skillful nursing care coupled with a broad smile and efficacious laugh make her popular with patients and acquaintances. Remember the "Little Church Around the Corner"?

VIOLA MAE WEBB

Vi

June 18

Americus, Ga.

Never a dull moment with Vi—Laughing brown eyes, spontaneous smile and elegant red hair are attractive features. Her humor is infectious—(pwing!) there goes a "pididdle"! Industrious and cooperative, Vi is considerate of her patients and fellow workers.

KAY ELIZABETH WINTON

We-han

October 10

Lansdale, Pa.

"Debbie" is the word that describes Kay. Jitterbug de luxe, Stew and she are a hep team together. With her perfect figure and casual clothes she looks like a page from "Mademoiselle". Has been known on occasion to beat Western Union to Lansdale.

DOROTHY ZULICK

Smiley

January 21

Philadelphia, Pa.

Our diligent editor of the Cap and Candle—the smiling Russian. With her agreeable personality and sunny disposition she has made many friends at the hospital. Fond memories of Muni and polio ward. Maternity nights with hardly (?) a delivery. "Tovarich!"

LAST WILL

We, the Class of 1946 of the Woman's Medical College Hospital, School of Nursing, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, being of apparently sound mind and memory do hereby conjure, declare, and publish this, our last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say: We bequeath to all succeeding classes our efficiency on the floors, our incomparable record in the classroom, our skill in handling patients. To posterity, we leave the memory of three years of service in the Cadet Nurse Corps, the fun we've had wearing the uniform—especially at the U.S.O. To the younger students and yet unborn generations goes our beloved Harkness House: Mrs. Hirst, Miss Bell, Mrs. Sexton, Sophie and Tom, buns on Sunday morning, the ring around the third floor bath-tub, and at least half of the parlor jokes we've acquired in training. We leave you our dear little bus, bounces included, and its driver, Brooks, who has taken such good care of us through the years. Along with them, go a spare tire and monkey wrench—just in case! To the Juniors, we leave our turn on night duty in the Nursery—hoping for a census less than thirty-five. Also to you, we give Maternity nights with two deliveries at 6:45 a.m.

To the Freshman, we leave the experience and diversion of the hospital services—pre-natal clinic with fifty patients, the O.R. and un-ending carbolizing—the D.K. with glucose lemonade and diabetic diets. To the probies, a gallon of the midnight oil we burned in vain, the precious Sundays we used to get off, our maidenly modesty long since disappeared, the hours we stood in line for breakfast.

To Frye—Leffring leaves her mess-o soprano

To Gerber—Scheid bequeaths the baby grand in the living room

To the next unfortunate editor—"Smiler" leaves the yearbook

To Miss Kistler—"the Chief" leaves "what IS that thing?"

For Geiger—Koller vacates the living room couch

To Rheiner—Bubbles' green soap cocktail

To Rohland—Mrs. Smith leaves the rice she saved from her wedding

To Cerankowski—Cirafasi leaves her yearbook

AND TESTAMENT

To Feeman—Reed leaves the pawn ticket for her ukelele
To Dr. Fry—goes the latest Spike Jones' recording of "Chloe"
To Drs. Fernandez-Fox and Cottrell—a ten year subscription to Dy-dee Wash
To McCrudden—Ausura's hats
To Bono—Webb leaves the worn-out rug in the N.S.O.
To Ivy—"yappity, yappity"! signed Derringe
To Putsh—goes Sterzen's glamour
To Armstrong—Branca leaves her braids
To Miss Bell—O'Connell's gold-fish "Tuna"
To all the new classes: Dr. Bucher's specimine bottles and Reyfus tubes—gulp!
To Dr. Wilder—Prof. Stewart's formula for T.N.T.
To the English girls—Brownlee relinquishes the British Navy
To Dr. Geiss—Jany leaves "Barnum" and "Bailey" for scientific research
To Russel—Stew leaves her boots and saddle
To Mrs. Lewis—goes Caprio's four-day bus ride
To Russo—Kim's ferocious appetite
To Burkholder—short stature
To Higgins—goes Santry's Irish brogue
To Mrs. Sexton—the affection of the entire class
Hayes leaves her white stockings and unmentionables in the third floor wash bowl
Voyde gives the Navy Yard phone number (Dewey 0600) to Hoffman
Winton leaves her curly hair to Bilger
Seeley delivers Drums to Gene Krupa
Orndorf's orthopedic shoes go to Komp
Leiby leaves her up-swept hair-do to Starr
Shirdy sets her alarm clock for McHugh
In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our name and seal this twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-six.
